OBSEQUIES IN NEW YORK

OVER THE REMAINS OF THE LATE ROSCOE CONKLING.

The Ceremony Very Brief—Episcopal Church Services Read By Dr. Morgan Dix—Many Distinguished Gentlemen Present—Funeral to be Held at Utica.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The casket containing the remains of Roscoe Conkling was borne out his late apartments at 9 West Twenty-fourth street at 10:45 o'clock, and taken to Trinity chapel, on West Twenty-fifth street, where the funeral took place at 10 o'clock.

The casket was severely plain. At the foot of the casket on the top thereof was a handsome wreath of laurel, in the center a pillow of white roses and lilies of the valley, and at the head a bouquet of sweet scented pansies. The family and a few of the most intimate friends took a look at the face of the dead before the casket was taken from the house. No one else was allowed to see the face.

A platoon of police under charge of Police Captain Reilly was stationed on the sidewalk to control the crowd. At 9 o'clock a crowd began to gather about the residence. At the church subsequently there was positively a jam. At precisely 9:45 the casket was borne out of the house. The pallbearers followed, led by Senator John P. Jones and Manton Marble. The others were Isaac H. Bailey, Mayor Hewitt, Clarence Seward, ex-Judge Shipman, S. L. M. Barlow, Hon. W. J. Wallace, Walter S. Church and Senator Cameron. The pallbearers, together with Drs. Sand and Barker occupied the first three carriages.

The mourners entered the carriages in the following order: Col. Conkling with Mrs. Conkling, and Mr. and Mrs. Oakman in the first carriage; Alderman Conkling, Miss Conkling, Judge Coxe and Mrs. Linklyn in the second carriage; Herbert Conkling and Mrs. Coleman, and Col. Fred. Grant and Mrs. U. S. Grant in the third carriage; Secretary Fairchild and Mrs. Conkling's sister and George C. Gorham with Mrs. Fred. D. Grant in the fourth carriage.

Thought to Be Exaggerated.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—A cable dispatch was received at the state department from Berlin this afternoon containing some particulars about Minister Pendleton's illness.

It states that Mr. Pendleton, feeling unwell, left Berlin last Monday for Weisbaden, and on Wednesday evening suffered from what seemed to be a slight stroke of paralysis.

He had recovered sufficiently, however, yesterday to send instructions to the legation at Berlin.

At the department it is thought the published reports about his having been stricken with apoplexy are greatly exaggerated.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Fotheringham Awarded That Sum for False Imprisonment.

St. LOUIS, April 21.—The jury in the suit of David S. Fotheringham against the Adams Express company for damages for false imprisonment were instructed Thursday morning, and after being out three hours and a half agreed on a verdict of $20,000 for the plaintiff.

The case grew out of the Jim Cummings express robbery on the Frisco railroad, in 1886, when the robbers secured $53,000. The three robbers, Wittrock, Haight and Weaver, were captured in Chicago in the winter of 1887, and $41,000 of the stolen money was recovered.

The men confessed, exonerating the express messenger, David S. Fotheringham, who had been held, and, as it seemed to the jury, hounded by W. H. Damsell, the agent of the company, and Pinkerton's detectives.

The trial had occupied over two weeks, and more witnesses have been examined than in any case before tried in this city. The original sum claimed was $80,000, and suit was originally instituted against Pinkerton, Damsell and the Adams Express company, but the detectives and the agent were dropped out of the suit.

The sum of $20,000 awarded by the jury was the full amount claimed on the first count in the indictment—that of false imprisonment.

In the other two counts—for malicious prosecution—the jury awarded nothing. An evening paper sums up the cost of the robbery to the express company as follows:

Detectors' expenses and attorneys' fees in the first prosecution, $1,139; mortgage raised on Mrs. Wittrock's house, $1,700; Robert A. Pinkerton and assistants, $10,000; Henry D. Laughlin, attorney for the express company, $10,000; railroad fares and other expenses, estimated, $15,000; money taken by the robbers and not returned, $12,000; verdict for damages, $20,000; actual cost to the company, $69,839. Besides this must be added the cost of the court.

ON THE SCAFFOLD.

An Old Gray-haired Man Hanged at Lebanon, Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 21.—Napoleon B. Lester was hanged, to-day, at Lebanon for a crime committed.

Lester was convicted of the murder of Lieut. J. G. Lane, in Lebanon, on July 23 last.

Lane, who was a prominent lawyer, had just sat down outside of his office door, when Lester stepped up close behind him and emptied both barrels of his gun into Lane's left side. The victim died instantly.

His defense at the trial was that he had been driven insane by the unfaithfulness of his wife, between whom and Lane he asserted a criminal intimacy had existed.

The judge and the jury, however, were convinced that the murderer was without mitigating circumstances. The case was taken to the supreme court, which tribunal affirmed the verdict on February 25. The unhappy man slept in court while sentence was being pronounced.

Lester was a man of sixty years, and had a wealth of silvery white hair. He said quite recently that he did what was right and would do the same thing again.

Poison was twice found in his cell, and he frequently declared that he would not go to the scaffold alive.

Benefit for Jack Farrell.

NEW YORK, April 21.—John Kelly, the valet of Benson, the Mexican swindler, and a man named Barbine, have been arrested for conspiring to aid Benson to escape from Ludlow Street jail, where he is held pending extradition to Mexico. Benson thought he had bribed a keeper of the prison to smuggle in a key made by Kelly and to otherwise aid in the plot, but the keeper exposed the scheme.

Shot By a Drunken Boy.

HALLOWELL, Me., April 21.—H. L. Brown, aged twenty-two, while walking on Concord street to-day, was shot in the head by a little boy named Miller French, and dangerously wounded. French and two boys who were playing with him were arrested. Their ages range from five to ten years, and all three were drunk.

Benefit for Jack Farrell.

NEW YORK, April 21.—A boxing benefit was tendered, Thursday night, to Jack Farrell, the popular feather-weight, who is suffering from the loss of an eye.

Farrell wound up the entertainment by boxing six friendly rounds with his old antagonist, Jack Havelin. The affair realized a goodly sum for the unfortunate pugilist.

MINISTER PENDLETON ILL.

He is Stricken With Apoplexy, But is Not Considered Dangerous.

GEORGE H. PENDLETON.

BERLIN, April 21.—Mr. George H. Pendleton, the American minister, while traveling to Frankfort, was stricken with apoplexy. He was taken to the hospital at Wiesbaden, where he now lies.

LATER—Mr. Pendleton was stricken while in a train near Weisbaden, to which place he had taken a trip from Frankfort. He was conveyed to the hospital at his own desire. He is paralyzed on one side.

Not Dangerous.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Minister Pendleton's son, Francis K. Pendleton, a lawyer of this city, has received a cable dispatch from Wiesbaden, informing him that while his father sustained a slight apoplectic stroke, his condition was not at any time considered dangerous, nor is danger feared now. This morning he was again reassured by cable dispatches both from Wiesbaden and Berlin. A secretary of legation at Berlin cables: "Continued improvement; danger not feared. Your father telegraphed me himself."

Thought to Be Exaggerated.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S VISIT.

SHE DISCOVERS THAT SHE CANNOT GOVERN ALL EUROPE.

She is Extremely Disappointed With the Result of Her Trip—Boulanger Takes a Seat in the Chamber—Russian Preparations Continue—European News.

LONDON, April 21.—Queen Victoria's visit to the continent has proved to be a failure as far as two schemes which that ambitious ruler has nursed for some time are concerned. Her plans have received a direct check and when she returns to her own country, she will have acquired the knowledge that England's queen, though she can rule England's royal family to her liking, cannot dabble in the fortunes or alter the status of other royal households.

One of Queen Victoria's ambitious schemes was to marry Prince Alexander to Princess Victoria, and this project, it is safe to say, if not entirely killed, will be kept in abeyance until it is too late for any particular benefit to be derived from it. Another was the elevation of her son-in-law, Prince Henry of Battenberg, into royal circles, but this also has failed.

It is learned on very good authority that Emperor Frederick nipped this little plan in the bud. It has long been the idea of the queen to secure for Prince Henry recognition as a prince of royal blood from continental courts, and when Emperor William died and Fredericks, her son-in-law, came to the throne, she thought that she saw the accomplishment of this project.

SATURDAY EVE., APRIL 21, 1888.

COLONEL WM. O'BRADLEY will not be the Republican nominee for Vice President, if Colonel Swope can prevent it.

THE Republican party is in for protection. They will need all they can get in the next campaign, judging from the late elections.

LEE A. EDWARDS, of Ripley, is the Republican nominee for Elector in the Congressional district of which Brown County is a part.

JOHN HEDRICKS, of Russelville, Ohio, said to be the oldest man in Brown County, died a few days ago at the age of ninety-six years.

THE news from the Louisiana election grows better with age. The Democratic majority is now placed at 80,000. Evidently the sugar makers of that State are not afraid of the Mills Tariff bill ruining their industry.

THE Republicans of the district just across the river have re-nominated Hon. J. J. Pugsley for Congress. The iniquitous gerrymander a few years ago by the Republican Legislature made the district solid for that party, and Pugsley will likely have smooth sailing.

ON and after to-morrow the Sunday issue of the Cincinnati Enquirer will contain twenty pages, until further notice. This enlarged edition has been found necessary on account of the great demand for space by advertisers, who have lately been monopolizing most of the paper.

THE notorious J. J. Cornelison and his friends are full of pluck and perseverance. Another effort is being made by a writ of habeas corpus to have him released from jail, where he is serving his sentence for cow-hiding Judge Reid. Numerous efforts heretofore have proved futile. The present writ is being heard by Judge Turner, of the Mt. Sterling Police Court.

CLARK COUNTY Republicans have instructed their delegates to the State convention to vote for A. M. Swope, of Fayette; W. O. Bradley, of Garrard; Morgan Thomas, of Lewis and C. W. Russell, of Estill, for delegates-at-large to the National convention, and for John Bosley, of the Winchester Sun, for delegate from the Tenth Congressional district.

"If the Republicans are not satisfied with the Louisiana election how would it do to send Senator Sherman down to find Eliza Pinkston?" remarks the Cincinnati Enquirer. That's a bad suggestion. The Senator might find Casanova, Kenner and the rest of the 1876 Returning Board and then try to count out the newly-elected Democratic Governor.

THE racy letters from "Clara Belle" on society and fashions have been a feature of the Cincinnati Enquirer—Sunday edition—for several years, and many people have puzzled themselves to find out who the author is, but in vain. A late New York paper, however, says the letters are the joint product of three clever women of that city, one of whom, Mrs. Mary H. Fiske, has lately written a play.

That Tate Investigation.

As for the Tate investigation, it is being done in secret, and it may be depended upon that an effort will be made to conceal as many facts as possible that might work to the disadvantage of the Democratic party.—Mayville Republican.

What an awkward and absurd comment. Tate's defalcation can not be suppressed in the interest of his party. If every scrap of memoranda in his private papers were destroyed it could not relieve the Democratic party from the responsibility that rests upon it. What grounds has the Republican for charging that an effort will be made to conceal the facts? This could only be done by the committee, and its members comprise some of the best men in the Legislature. The investigation has proceeded carefully, if leisurely, and all the facts will be given to the public.—Louisville Commercial.

Doings of The Legislature.

The House has passed a bill to incorporate the Deposit Bank of Pearce, Fant & Co., at Flemingsburg.

Also a bill to incorporate the Brooksville and Mt. Olivet Turnpike Road Company in Bracken County.

The bill known as the Thomas Railroad bill passed the House by a vote of 46 to 26. It is not likely to pass the Senate. The bill abolishes the present Railroad Commission and substitutes a Board of three Assessors whose duties are limited to assessment of railroad property. The Assessors are to receive $10 a day for their services. Representative Goeding voted for the bill and Walton against it.

The House passed a bill to reform the common school system. The bill increases the duty of the County Superintendent and Trustees; provides that the questions stated by the State Board shall be used in all examinations; compels the attendance of all teachers upon institutes; renders more stringent the examination of candidates for County Superintendents, and aims at uniformity generally in the school system, except that it does not touch the text book problem.

Stock, Field and Farm.

At Ichertville, Texas, the growing corn is knee-high and the prairies are covered with grass and flowers.

Says the Bourbon News: "Captain J. A. Jackson, a dry goods merchant of Mayslick, who paid this office a call Saturday, says that the other merchants of his town besides himself, have sold three times as much cotton for covering tobacco plant beds than has ever been sold in that place—indicating that an enormous crop will be planted there this year.

The entire stock of tobacco cotton cloth in town was exhausted last week, and our merchants have hastily laid in large additional supplies. This is a striking indication of the large acreage of the weed to be set out this year. Many people with gardens are also using the stuff to forward early vegetables and protect them from cold snaps.—Ripley Bee.

The corn and clover fields near Owensboro, Ky., have been invaded by what the farmers call the clover cut-worm and the majority of the fields have been totally destroyed. The worms are as numerous as the army worms has ever been known to be, and their ravages are working incalculable loss to the farmers. No method of checking them that has yet been tried has proved in the least effective.

GENERAL SHERMAN is inviting the "Rebel Brigadiers" to a dinner to be given at Delmonico's, in New York, in commemoration of the anniversary of Gen. Grant's birthday, while politicians at Washington and elsewhere wave the bloody shirt. Governor Buckner's official duties have compelled him to decline an invitation to the dinner.

JUDGING from the number of private pension bills pending in Congress, Cleveland's veto axe will soon be dripping with gore.

THE revival in the M. E. Church at Ripley still continues. The pastor Rev. Clayton has conducted services for nearly one hundred consecutive nights. He is being assisted now by Rev. Moses Porter.

To Joseph F. Brodrick, Agent: After having been insured in the Equitable Life for twenty years I have to-day received their check for near $7,000. This company is possessed of both wealth and honor.

EMERY WHITAKER.

These private pension bills were vetoed a few days ago by the President. These were about the first that have received him during the present session of Congress. The "near approach" of the National election does not seem to deter Cleveland from doing his duty.

THE Millersburg correspondent of the Bourbon News says: "A bachelor's club has been organized here with fifty members. When a member marries, the balance contribute ten dollars each to the groom and bride—an inducement of $490 for a man to marry. The ladies are all rejoicing."

OWENS & BARKLEY have just received several sizes of lawn mowers. Will be sold at lower prices than ever before. Also large lot of fishing reels, rods, lines, hooks, minnow seines, seines from twelve to seventy-five feet long, at wholesale and retail. Stock of barbed and annealed fence wire and fence staples. All will be sold at the lowest prices. Corn planters—'Eagle,' "Buckeye" and "Victor."

Fashions for the Ladies.

Copper in all shades grows more and more the rage, and is combined in stripes, checks and borderings, with white, black, suede, tan and various brown shades, while the mixtures of its own tones are as numerous as they are indescribable.

The full effects now so prevalent in soft wool may have their clumsiness somewhat mitigated by a band and bow of ribbon tied at the collar's left side, a similar one tied on the sleeve at the elbow, and a ribbon girdle to subdue the full vest.

The summer wrap grows more and more a thing of beads and patches, and the greatest variant from last year's style is the ribbon half-belt, which, beginning under the arms, ties in a full bow at the back, thereby making less conspicuous the bustle's threatened absence.

White vests continue to rage. Now white serge in tucks or box-plaits is all the wear, but "when the roses bloom again" we are threatened with white sash ones, stiffer than coats of mail, for wear with wash gowns.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

THE CINCINNATI BREWERS

OVER SEVEN HUNDRED OUT ON A STRIKE IN THE QUEEN CITY.

Breweries Continue to Run Nevertheless. Both Sides Hold Meetings—Charges of Anarchism—The Deadly Boycott Likely to Be Resorted To—Notes.

CINCINNATI, April 21.—The great beer battle is now fully on. All the employees of the Heraclon brewery, fifty-three in number, struck at 7 a.m. The bosses' circular had not yet been signed by that firm, but it was generally understood that it would soon be forced into allegiance with the association, as several of the heaviest stockholders, Judge Goebel and John Hauck among the number, were greatly displeased with the firm in siding with the union.

Immediately after the strike Thursday the stable men, drivers, clerks and considerable outside help were pressed into the service, and as a result none of the breweries had to shut down.

The actual number of men out, as given by the bosses, is 762.

The strikers at their meeting Thursday afternoon adopted the following resolutions: "WHEREAS, The brewers' strike in this city was provoked by the Christian Moerlein brewery with the assistance of their foreman,

"WHEREAS, further, The other brewery owners allowed themselves to be cat's-paws for the said firm;

"WHEREAS, further, The above mentioned firms have lost the patronage of all organized labor and of all well meaning citizens by their hasty action until they recognize the union again;

"WHEREAS, further, Mr. Gerst is ready and willing to hire for the said firm the necessary number of scabs and tramps and such elements as are willing at any time to do such dirty work;

"WHEREAS, further, It does not change matters if these gentlemen employ ever so many scabs, and our motto will be: 'We workmen do not drink scab beer,' and leave it to themselves to drink their stuff.

"WHEREAS, further, The whole matter is a premeditated one to destroy the Brewers' union in the whole country; therefore, be it RESOLVED, That the local Brewers' union, No. 12, condemn emphatically the action of the brewer bosses, and that they will fight them in conjunction with other labor organizations."

The Brewers' association received dispatches from branch associations at Pittsburgh, Detroit, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and other places offering assistance, and 400 strangers are now on their way to fill the places of the strikers.

The only weapon the strikers can now resort to is the deadly boycott. In this they are assured of the co-operation of all organized labor.

Both the Congress of Amalgamated Labor and the Central Labor union held meetings Thursday night, the former at Workmen's hall and the latter at Union hall.

The brewers' strike was most emphatically endorsed and a call was issued for all labor unions to complete a general boycott on pool beer. It was also decided to bring union beer here from other cities.

President Alex. Darusmont, of the Banner Brewing company, stated to an evening paper that one of his men, August Berger, had threatened to blow up the brewery, and that detectives had been sent to Workmen's hall to arrest the man, and that a charge of threatening malicious destruction of property would be placed against him. President Darusmont further stated that Berger is an Anarchist and a leader among the strikers from his place, among whom he knows there are Anarchists. They have held, so he claims, secret meetings in the cellar of the brewery, some of which meetings have been given away by other employees.

Fully half the 2,100 local saloonkeepers are dependent almost entirely on the laboring classes for patronage.

Professional and business men, as a class, drink wine and whisky, and without the support of the laboring classes the demand for beer will be decidedly small.

Committees from the congress of Amalgamated Labor and the Central Labor union will arrange for an immense mass meeting at Workmen's hall, probably Sunday, for the purpose of laying the case thoroughly before the public and the object of the boycott.

The Lockout in New York.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The brewers' lockout has settled down to a question of strength between the employers and employees. The former say that so far as they are concerned there is nothing further to be done. They have made their fight and won it. Mr. Seiffert, secretary of the Brewers' association, said that the men at Conrad Stein's brewery had gone out this morning by order of their union. Mr. Stein had given them until noon to return, when if they did not do so, the Brewers' association will send him all the men he needs to carry on his business.

The workingmen's morning meeting was more largely attended than usual to-day, the speakers frequently quoting the sayings of the boss brewers about the lockout being at an end, and they were invariably received with derision. Reports were read from different pickets on duty at the various breweries, and they were far from being in accord with those that are being received at the offices of the boss brewers' association. The sentiment of the meeting was that the boycott should be pushed more vigorously than ever.

The state board of arbitration will decide to-day whether or not they shall commence an investigation of the causes of the lockout, the brewers' association having peremptorily declined to treat with them as arbitrators.

Manager Jones said to-day: "We are getting ready to start and propose to work; the works will be running to their full capacity before long. Enough men can easily be secured to fill every position. Two hundred, all we want, are at work to-day. No discrimination against former employees will be made and no trouble is anticipated, but we are fully prepared for any emergency. Under the new scale we recognize no labor organization."

To-day Capt. Jones entered a suit for criminal libel against the Braddock Daily News for an anonymous communication published last evening.

It is reported that the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers will support the Knights of Labor in the trouble. The amalgamated officials, however, decline to be interviewed on the subject.
